New books, New journals, New repertories

Synergy Homeopathic Software has thousands of new materials from the latest provings and from of the highest quality journals ever published (The Organon Journal, The International Hahnemannian Association Transactions, and The Homeopathic Physician).

Enhance your homeopathic knowledge by adding these materials to your current libraries. Pick and choose which books you wish to add – whether from material previously in MacRepertory & ReferenceWorks or newer materials never before seen in our programs. Easily compare the MM of two remedies in the same or different books and view them next to each other.

The Reliable Repertory

The team searched each rubric through hundreds of books (Classical and contemporary authors) and added them to the Repertory with the exact sentence from the original reference.

The Reliable Repertory will be the cornerstone of Synergy Homeopathic Software, links back to original Materia medica sources and allows you to confirm that your chosen remedy is correct. Eight years of diligent research has ensured that The Reliable Repertory's rubrics are accurate and reliable. The foundation of the Reliable repertory was based on the works of the pioneers in Homeopathy.

The authors, under Dr Rajan Sankaran's guidance have used Kent as a basis, with additions from: Boenninghausen's characteristics, CM Boger, Boger General Analysis, Boericke, Clarke's Clinical Repertory, Allen's Repertory, Knerr's Repertory, Phatak's Repertory, P. Sankaran, Douglass, Pulford. Robert's Sensation As If and new provings.

Expert Systems

Synergy Homeopathic Software has expert systems that allow you to solve your cases according to your preferred methodology. Vital Quest, which follows Sankaran's Sensation methodology, is one such system. Additional modules, planned for future releases, will include the Bönninghausen Expert System and the Massimo Mangialavori Expert System.

Mobility! Mobility! Mobility!

Finally! What everyone has been waiting for – the ability to work on their cases anywhere – the beach, a park, on the train, at the gym...

Accessibility is guaranteed any time, on any device (laptop, smartphone, or tablet), and anywhere there's an internet connection. Additionally, you'll have the same contemporary design and intuitive navigation found on the desktop version.

You'll be able to add this feature to your licensed program for a minimal cost.
